

Ethnologisches Kolloquium im Wintersemester 2019/2020

Termin: Di 18.30 – 20.00, Iwalewahaus, Foyer, Wölfelstrasse 2

- organisiert von Andrea Behrends

- 15.10.2019 Auftaktveranstaltung der Studiengänge, Vorstellung der Lehrveranstaltungen
- 22.10.2019 Remadji Hoinathy "Doing Anthropology at home (in Chad): Caught between the margins of local academia and the temptations of international consultancy"
- 29.10.2019 Maike Voigt "From family crisis to business creation: The effect of turning points on social status"
- 05.11.2019 Stephen Reyna "Truth Matters': Uncomfortable and approximate truths"
- 12.11.2019 Jana Hönke "Africa's Infrastructure Globalities"
- 19.11.2019 Mirjam de Bruijn "Conflict and new Communication Technology in Africa: Changes in youth actions / agency in duress"
- 26.11.2019 Tabea Häberlein „Erwachsenenleben: Überlegungen zur Ökonomie eines Lebensabschnitts in Togo/Benin“
- 03.12.2019 Lotte Meinert "Together Apart: Fence Work in Landscapes of Relationality"
- 10.12.2019 Nikolas Friederici „Digital entrepreneurship in Africa: Escaping from Silicon Valleys long shadow“
- 17.12.2019 Weihnachtsfeier
- 07.01.2020 Gisa Weszkalnys "Paused Explorations: Oil, Time, and Capitalism in the African Atlantic"
- 14.01.2020 Lotte Pelckmans „Fugitive narratives: Slave concubines in Niger-Nigerian borderlands“
- 21.01.2020 Semesteraussprache
- 28.01.2020 Amanda Hammar „Speaking through Houses: Interweaving Biography, Property and Personhood in Urban Zimbabwe“
- 04.02.2020 Ursula Rao „Flexible policy: The use of data and feedback loops for iterative learning“