

Ethnologisches Kolloquium im Sommersemester 2020

zum Thema Anthropologische Perspektiven auf Covid-19

Veranstalter: Erdmute Alber, Andrea Behrends, Uli Beisel, Katharina Schramm

Termin: Di 18.30 – 20.00

Teilnahme über e-learning: <https://elearning.uni-bayreuth.de/course/view.php?id=25950>

- 21.04.20 Semestereröffnung, Vorstellung der Lehrveranstaltungen und Dozenten per Begrüßungsvideo
- 28.04.20 Anthropological Perspectives on Covid-19: Short Inputs and Open Discussion
- 05.05.20 Uli Beisel "Learning from Ebola"
- 12.05.20 Sung Joon Park (Halle) "Open preparedness: EVD epidemics, Covid-19 pandemic and the future of preparedness"
- 19.05.20 Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni (Pretoria / Bayreuth) "Geopolitics of Power and Knowledge in the Midst of Covid-19 Pandemic: Decolonial Reflections on a Global Crisis"
- 26.05.20 Ruth Prince (Oslo) "Coronavirus in Kenya: some early observations from the field"
- 02.06.20 vorlesungsfrei
- 09.06.20 Andrea Behrends „Thinking with/about/through Crisis“
- 16.06.20 Katharina Schramm „Inequalities and Covid-19“
- 23.06.20 Erdmute Alber „Covid-19, work and care“
- 30.06.20 Guests: Remadji Hoinathy (N'Djamena) & Babakar Fall (Dakar)
- 07.07.20 Claudia Liebelt „Olfactories of Hygiene: Practices of sanitization and smell during the Covid-19 pandemic in Germany and Turkey – a preliminary report“
- 14.07.20 Tabea Häberlein „Covid-19 – Insights from students' research projects“ (Vortrag in deutscher Sprache / in German language)
- 21.07.20 Semesteraussprache, Abschlussdiskussion